DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

From the Pastor's Desk

A sincere word of thanks to everyone who helped to make our Holy week and Easter celebrations so meaningful and beautiful. I wish you A Blessed and Happy Feast of Divine Mercy. Today the Lord gives the power to forgive sins to the Apostles and their successors. How blessed we are to experience the forgiveness of God through the sacrament of reconciliation.

In the coming weeks our diocese will begin a major fund raising effort to help our parishes. You will receive a letter from Father John encouraging you to share your time, talent, and treasure with our parish. It is always a challenge for us to make ends meet, and the pandemic has only made the situation worse. We are so grateful for your unselfish support of our parish.

Dear Father, I was wondering

Why is Easter season seven weeks long? Dear Friend, thank you for your excellent question. The Season of Easter celebrates the forty days during which the Lord appeared to His followers after His resurrection, and the ten days from His ascension into Heaven to the descent of the Holy Spirit.

Please note: The Parish Office is open from 10am to 2pm on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

YEAR OF ST JOSEPH

Saint Joseph is patron saint of a holy and happy death. St Joseph is patron saint of the dying. He suffered his own final days on earth in the company of Jesus and Mary. Now St Joseph intercedes for us at the time of our death and entrusts us to the tender loving care of Our Blessed Mother, and Jesus Himself. Through his intercession may we be filled with every grace as we leave this world.

O St Joseph, pray for us.
